

Untrue Colour

The Answer

Untrue colour making it easy
To see the world isn't how I dreamed
Bright spark on the city skyline
Untrue colour is all I see

I heard a cry
Someone creeping beyond the door
She passed me by
I don't want it anymore

Untrue colour
Found my brother
Sister run for cover

Untrue colour shaping a new world
You think about your demands
A quick fix to break the silence
Untrue colour I understand

To my surprise
She turned a hundred and eighty degree
No time to cry
Hey brother wait for me

Untrue colour (falling)
Found my brother
Sister run for cover
From that...

Untrue colour
I don't want it anymore

Untrue colour
Untrue colour
Untrue colour
Untrue colour (sister)
Untrue colour
Run for cover (falling)
Found my brother (falling)
Untrue colour (sister)
