The Antlers

Waking up... I'm not awake.
The planet drowns in a hundred days,
Dissolving into a million pieces in a billion places.
A million pieces in a billion places.
A million pieces in a billion places.
Slow it down...
Wait it out...
"We can't run, but we can go swimming..."
Diving in late at night,
We come together,
Dissolving into a million pieces in a billion places.
A million pieces in a billion places.
A million pieces in a billion places.
