

Kryptonite

The Apers

I love your girl, I miss your arms around me
The sweet words and the kisses
The cool things that we did
I didn't really think, that anyone could hurt me
As much as you've hurt me
It took me by surprise
I dream about you almost every night
My heart is bleeding for you, it's alright
Cause when I see you, you're still out of sight
I guess you are my kryptonite

It's all too much, I don't think I can take it
But I really wanna make it
And show my love for you
Clichès aside, I've never loved nobody
The same way that I love you
I think you know it's true
I don't wanna be like all the other guys
I'm gonna wait for you, and I am gonna try
To win you back for me
Today your love, and tomorrow we will see

I love your girl, I miss your arms around me
The sweet words and the kisses
The cool things that we did
I didn't really think, that anyone could hurt me
As much as you've hurt me
It took me by surprise
I dream about you almost every night
My heart is bleeding for you, it's alright
Cause when I see you, you're still out of sight

I guess you are my kryptonite (3x)
