

Reanimate My Heart

The Apers

I haven't left the house in days
Ever since you broke my heart
Well that's not true, it didn't break
No you tore it apart

I sit around, and watch TV
Draw question marks on the wall
Did you ever really care for me
Did you ever care at all?

I think that no one could foresee
The damage that you've done to me

Cause I'm lifeless, lost alone without you
Reanimate Reanimate
Nothing but a corpse without you
Reanimate Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart

The days just keep on passing by
The nights are long and cold
My mind is blank my eyes are red
My body feels so old

I know I should get up and go outside to face the world
I really want to but I can't cause I don't feel a pulse

I think that no one could foresee
The damage that you've done to me

Cause I'm lifeless, lost alone without you
Reanimate Reanimate
Nothing but a corpse without you
Reanimate Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart

Cause I'm lifeless, lost alone without you
So please Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart
So please Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart..

No one could foresee
Something this unexpectable could happen to me
And it's not acceptable
So I ask you now
Bring back that lovin' feeling and Reanimate my heart

please Reanimate my heart

Reanimate my heart
Reanimate my heart
