

Submarine Dream

The Apples In Stereo

She likes the ocean shore, the waves are like a door she looks into the green water scene, Her mind is faraway just like the ocean spray she looks into the gray of yesterday

She rides a submarine
she rides a time machine
she rides upon a dream,
her submarine
oh, what does she mean?

She likes the ocean caves, the world beneath the waves where everything is strange
-what a change the world is lost in time just like the ocean shine and everybody seems in between

oh, what does she mean?
her submarine, what does she mean?

The time slips through her hands just like the ocean sang and everybody knows that's the way it goes
