

Rain Clouds

The Arcadian Wild

I'm being followed by the rain clouds
My clothes are soaking up the pain that keeps pouring down
Too much more and I may drown
I'm being followed by the night sky
It stole away my sight, it seems I have lost my way
I need someone to be my guide

Listen to my voice
Close your frightened eyes
Hide behind my love for you
Fear's only a choice
One that we all must make someday
So know you're not alone in this

I'm being frightened by the people
They look at me like I'm a scar upon their perfect skin
Perfect to only them
I'm being shadowed by my past
Reminding me of what I was and what I could become
My sins should stay where they belong

Listen to my voice
Close your frightened eyes
Hide behind my love for you
Fear's only a choice
One that we all must make someday
So know you're not alone in this

I'm sick and tired of these rain clouds
That cover up the morning sun I so desperately seek
Just one tiny glimpse is all I need
A spark of hope is what I'm after
A single day with cloudless skies would surely make a change
A friend whispering it'll be all right

Listen to my voice
Close your frightened eyes
Hide behind my love for you
Fear's only a choice
One that we all must make someday
Listen to my voice
Close your frightened eyes
Hide behind my love for you
Fear's only a choice
One that we all must make someday
So know you're not alone in this
