Rippy The Gator

The Arrogant Worms

Hi kids! Welcome to The Uncle Bobo Show! Are you ready to sing? Come on, let's go! Billy and his family Went on a holiday They went down to Florida To laugh and dance and play Bill went in for a swim He didn't see the harm But when he came back out again He was short an arm!

'Cause Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Passing the time By ending children's lives Down in the bottom of the swamp, swamp, swamp

Billy and his father Went out to play some catch But Billy missed the pass Because his arm was unattached The ball flew past his shoulder And it rolled into the swamp When he went wading after it His leg became a stump!

'Cause Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Passing the time By ending children's lives Down in the bottom of the swamp, swamp, swamp..

Billy and his father Joined a three-legged race They were tearing up the field No one could keep the pace But Billy tripped and did a flip And landed in the muck He was running out of limbs And also out of luck!

'Cause Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Rippy The Gator went CHOMP, chomp, chomp! Passing the time By ending children's lives Down in the bottom of the swamp, swamp, swamp

Billy was all dirty
He really had to wash
But he couldn't use a towel
'Cause his limbs had been gnawed off.
He went into the water
To get all clean and bright
But when he was finished
He was only half his height.

'Cause Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Passing the time By ending children's lives Down in the bottom of the swamp, swamp, swamp..

Billy's father rolled his wheelchair Up upon a hill He wanted to take Bill Where he would not get killed But he left him on a slope And into a swamp he rolled They dragged out his head But there was nothing down below!

'Cause Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Rippy The Gator went chomp, chomp, chomp! Passing the time By ending children's lives Down in the bottom of the swamp, swamp, swamp.. Passing the time by ending children's lives Down in the bottom of the swamp (Down in the swamp..)
