

Midsummer Lullaby

The Astronauts

Hello it's good to you see when you smile
Can I stay here for a while
This heat's so sultry
These days I'm getting into living slow
The race don't know which way to go
Their world's so paltry
But your eyes they always haunt me everywhere
So forgive me if I tend to stare
But I read your letter
But June is such a continental time
So senõrita drink some wine
And you'll feel better

Yeah I tried to be the saviour of your race
But always ended getting spaced
Oh well who worries
It's warm it's such a lovely summer day
And my hayfever kept away
So what's the hurry
'Cos the world gets madder even as we speak
So if they say that you're a freak
We'll just ignore them
'Cause they're strange they never listen to the song
And if they don't know that they're wrong
We'll just assure them

I's late and soon we must go home to bed
Dream fulsome dreams for empty heads
But the goals you'll strike them
And my friends they may be young but they're still pure
Sometimes reckless immature
But that's the way I like them
So stay I'd kinda dig it if you'd stay
We'd have the moonlight hours to play
And love to borrow
But if you wanna split that's fine with me
Until we meet again bon nuit
Until tomorrow
