

Bad Type

The Astronomers

Yeah you woke up in London
At least that's what you said
I sat here scrolling and I saw
You with your aunt

A demon on your left
An angel on your right
But you're hypocritical
Always political

Say you mean one thing
But you
Go ahead and lie
Oh you Lie lie lie lie and you say you're not the bad type

Oh you posted on Twitter
Said you had other plans
But your mother she called me said
Come have lunch with the fam
Guess you didn't tell her that
You should have called me back
I guess you changed your number or something

Say you mean one thing
But you
Go ahead and lie
Oh you Lie lie lie lie and you say you're not the bad type
(Say you're not the bad type)

(Alright let's do this one more time)
You said you're over your ex
I don't believe you
You said you wanna be friends
But I see through

All my feelings are irrelevant
We know yours are delicate
You're lucky I'm a nice guy and not the bad type

Think about it before you go out and shout it
I doubt you think of others
No
You're so sweet to your friends
Talk shit behind them
Put in your contact lens
Before you trip
(Why do I even care)

Say you mean one thing
But you
Go ahead and lie
Oh you Lie lie lie lie and you say you're not the bad type
(Say you're not the bad type)

Lie lie lie lie
And you say you're not the bad type
Oh you lie lie lie lie

And you say you're not the bad type
And I try
Yeah I try to be the good guy
But you still lie lie lie lie
And I try

Say you mean one thing
But you
Go ahead and lie (go ahead and lie)
