

Sitcom

The Astronomers

Now the shows over
We said our goodbyes
Seven seasons got to know it
But now back to real life

Guess I'll find another
Sitcom to cry to
Then they drop my favorite character
Wasn't ready to say goodbye

Wish I could live my life through Michael Scott until I die
If I could just laugh it off with Jim and Pam to just disguise
Myself inside a TV show yeah I'd be fine
Just let me have the role
Where I could be that guy

Who gets the girl
Who has the job
Then gets promoted and has it all
Maybe it's all right here and you're just looking for it wrong
Don't let it get ya down
I know that it feels like everyone's in a show
But your series just maybe hasn't started
It hasn't started yet
