

Daisy Chain

The Atomic Bitchwax

Do you remember when I would call you names,
By mid december the phone wouldn't ring,
Can you remember when i would hold your hand,
I wish someone would understand me.

I remember, i remember holding out for days
You're just a part of the daisy chain.

Can you remember the days we overcame, so slow,
Then all together we're just thrown away, please go,
Do you remember those awful shows, oh no,
A box apartment and thrift shop clothing.

I remember, i remember holding out for days
You're just a part of the daisy chain.

I remember, i remember, still remember holding out for days
I remember, i remember, still remember holding out for days
You're just a part of the daisy chain.

I remember, i remember, still remember holding out for days
I remember, i remember, still remember holding out for days
You're just a part of the daisy chain
