

Home Again

The Auteurs

Home Again
Housesitting again
Rifle through Your possessions
and stuff
Things that you
Are ashamed of

Home again,
housesitting again
Looking through photos
At the back of your drawer
The way that you looked
When you were small

You're safe,
there's no prowler
No creeper in your lane
It's better than drugs
it's cool
To be in your home again

Home Again
housesitting again
It's just a little bit far
From the main crowd
Reading your poems
When you're not around

Home again,
housesitting again
Hospital letter,
a clinic on hold
A test that you took Awaiting results

You're safe,
there's no prowler
No creeper in your lane
It's better than drugs
it's cool
To be in your home again
