

Wedding Day

The Auteurs

I was caught out by surprise
In conversation with your brand new bride
Didn't know that you had second sight
Didn't know a thing about your life

Oh, must be the end of an age
Oh, it's your wedding day

I was stuck, the ladies choice leaned against the wall
I'm a born wallflower
Growing very tall

Oh, must be the end of an age
Oh, it's your wedding day

Who gave the bride away?
Who dropped the bouquet?
Happy Birthday, happy Halloween
Happy New Year
All of this means much the same
With or without you dear

Oh, must be the end of an age
Oh, it's your wedding day

Oh, it's not the end of an age
Oh, it's your wedding day
Just your wedding day
it's your wedding day
