

Mute Your Mind

The Avener

Don't tell me this is over
Money flows
Money flows through everything
I could be the one to show you
More than this
Everything will move on

Oh, don't you fall behind now, baby we'll lose
I want you to notice, this view
Hear the streets a-calling everyone
So don't you turn around, it's just begun

I won't, won't, won't
Let you leave, let you leave
'Cause I know, know, know
What you need, what you need
It's time, time, time
Mute your mind, mute your mind
And leave, leave, leave

Leave your worries in the night
Leave your worries, mute your mind
Leave your worries in the night
Just relax and let it slide

Let the sun inside you grow
And rise above
All of us, that's where you belong
Don't think you know just how
The story goes
Everything will move on

Oh, don't you fall behind now, baby we'll lose
I want you to notice, this view
Hear the streets a-calling everyone
So don't you turn around, it's just begun

I won't, won't, won't
Let you leave, let you leave
'Cause I know, know, know
What you need, what you need
It's time, time, time
Mute your mind, mute your mind
And leave, leave, leave

Leave your worries in the night
Leave your worries, mute your mind
Leave your worries in the night
Just relax and let it slide

Leave your worries in the night
Leave your worries, mute your mind
Leave your worries in the night
Just relax and let it slide
