

Under The Waterfall

The Avener

Under the waterfall

Take your time
I don't mind if we stay in the rain
These liquid skies will show the way
Let it fall to the ground and your soul
Close your eyes and take it in

In this pouring rain
I will make you stay, love
In this pouring rain
No one can break us

Under the waterfall, waterfall
We could be hiding
Making it wonderful, wonderful
Toeing the line, yeah
We could dive within
This endless rain
Under the waterfall, waterfall
We could be hiding love
We could be hiding love
We could be hiding love

And feel the change
All the pain slowly washing away
Instead of us beginning again
And close your eyes, take a breath, let it in Everything you need is here

In this pouring rain
I will make you say, love

In this pouring rain
No one can break us

Under the waterfall, waterfall
We could be hiding
Making it wonderful, wonderful
Toeing the line, yeah
We could dive within
This endless rain
Under the waterfall, waterfall
We could be hiding love
We could be hiding love
(We could be hiding love)
We could be hiding love

I see the lightning strike
Under the rainfall
After the thunder
Everything changes
[?] slowly now
Everyone feel it
[?] forget it

Under the waterfall, waterfall
We could be hiding
We could dive within
This endless rain
