

These Days

The Babys

These broken roads look the same
Feels like they know me by name
Gotta get out of this state I'm in
Don't know where it ends or where it begins
Why's it so hard to move on?
Almost everything I love is gone
Gotta try to get it right
I don't wanna fade like that
Yesterday is over, nothing but a memory
I think I'd rather think about tomorrow yeah
Today is almost over, and nowhere else to go
These days I prefer tomorrow
These days
These days
These days
Wanna live the rest of my life
No regrets, leave nothing behind
Make it work no matter what

Giving everything, giving everything I've got
Yesterday is over, nothing but a memory
I think I'd rather think about tomorrow yeah
Today is almost over, and nowhere else to go
These days I prefer tomorrow
These days
These days
These days
Yesterday is over, nothing but a memory
I think I'd rather think about tomorrow
Today is almost over, and nowhere else to go
Yesterday is over, nothing but a memory
I think I'd rather think about tomorrow
Today is almost over, and nowhere else to go
These days I prefer tomorrow
These days
