

Not An Egg

The Backyardigans

Once, I was a young egg, in fact it was today

Oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh...

Trapped inside my shell, there was nothing I could play
Wanted somethin' different, see the world outside
So I wobbled out the door, took the brave knights for a ride!

Cause it's in my heart, I can't ignore, I'm not an egg anymore!

He's not an egg any...

I'm not an egg any...

He's not an egg...

I'm not an egg...

... anymore!

When I met the goblin, he took me underground

Oooh, oooh, oooh, oooh...

That's when I grew two legs so I could run around
I scrambled to the forest where the flighty fairy sings
Then I cracked my shell some more and I grew a couple wings!

I feel so free that I could soar, I'm not an egg anymore!

He's not an egg any...

I'm not an egg any...

He's not an egg...

I'm not an egg...

... Anymore!

Well, now I am a dragon, a legendary beast
Do I miss my egg-hood days? No, not in the least!

My whole life's an open door, I'm not an egg anymore!

He's not an egg any...

I'm not an egg any...

He's not an egg...

I left my shell on the floor

He's not an egg...

I'm not an egg...

... anymore!
