

Save Me

The Ballroom Thieves

My life has flashed before me
A hundred thousand times
And I grow tired
My dreams won't listen to me
Leave me alone
I don't need anyone

But save me, baby
I could use your time
Cuz I've been crazy
Passing all these highway signs

Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa
Whoa, whoa, whoa

Yeah, my life has flashed before me
A hundred thousand times
And I grow tired
And my dreams won't listen to me
Leave me alone
I don't need anyone

Save me, baby
I could use your time
Cuz I've been crazy
Passing all these
Save me, baby
I could use your time
Cuz I've been crazy
Passing all these highway signs
These highway signs
These highway signs
