

Haunted

The Band CAMINO

I still see your silhouette
I wish we'd never met
I'm living with the ghost of you
You still visit me in bed
Got visions in my head
It's like I'm having déjà-vus
I still hear you in the hallway
Voices calling my name
Tell me what you want from me
White noise coming from the TV
Nobody believes me there

It felt like the beginning
At least it did to me
And it is what it is
And it's just what it will be

She's all that I wanted
She's all I really need
And now this house is haunted
She's just make believe

Maybe it was all a dream 'cause
That's the way it seems
I flicker in the dark again
I feel like such a lonely creature
Don't know how to reach her
Don't know how to tell my friends that
I'm caught up in your delusion
Drown in my confusion
They will think I'm losing it
White noise coming from the TV
Nobody believes me there

It felt like the beginning
At least it did to me
And it is what it is
And it's just what it will be

She's all that I wanted
She's all I really need
And now this house is haunted

You're still here even though you're gone
You disappear when the lights come on
You're still the one that I dream about
Now I'm stuck in a nightmare and I can't get out

Hear you say my name
Feel you touch my skin
Know it's all in my head
But I keep giving in
You were the one I always wanted
You were the one that left me haunted

White noise coming from the TV

Do you believe me yet?

She's all that I wanted
