

Karaoke

The Band CAMINO

Laying in my room again
Thinking about you with him
I've got nothing to do with it
Or your life anymore
I ran into you out last week
You were singing karaoke
It was the first time that you spoke to me
In a lifetime now

It'll always be you, even if we're out of time
Always you, I'll find you in another life
You're the glue in every déjà vu
So even if we're through
It'll always be you

I had a dream, you kissed my mouth
In Angelina Jolie's house
Thought I'd be sideways, stopped by now
And you'd still be here

It'll always be you, even if we're out of time
Always you, I'll find you in another life
You're the glue in every déjà vu
So even if we're through
It'll always be you

(Always be you)
(Always be you)

It'll always be you, even if we're out of time
Always you, I'll find you in another life
You're the glue in every déjà vu
So even if we're through
It'll always be you

Always be you (Always be you)
Always be you (Always be you)
Always be you (Always be you)
Always be you
Always be you
Always be you
Always be you
Always be you
Always be you
