

Someone Who's Trying

The Band CAMINO

I'm taking shape
One mistake at a time
Every one that I make
Leaves a permanent line
Got a bag full of clothes
A bottle of wine
Only say how I feel
From the back of my mind

Swear I'll start using my words
If I don't lose, how can I learn?
Can't heal unless your heart hurts
I'll try waiting my turn
You should've gave me a chance
And I know it's out of my hands
It always is

I'm sorry I
Let you down this time
Hope you still see me
As someone who's trying
I'll understand
If you draw a line
Can I learn to live
When I know I'm dying?

I'm stripping away
The good and the bad
If I take too much
I can't put it back

Swear I'll start using my words
If I don't lose, how can I learn?
Can't heal unless your heart hurts
I'll try waiting my turn
You should've gave me a chance
And I know it's out of my hands
It always is

I'm sorry I
Let you down this time
Hope you still see me
As someone who's trying
I'll understand
If you draw a line
Can I learn to live
When I know I'm dying?

I'm sorry I
Let you down this time
Hope you still see me
As someone who's trying
I'll understand
If you draw a line
Can I learn to live
When I know I'm dying?

If I
Let you down this time
Hope you still see me
As someone who's trying
