

Told You So

The Band CAMINO

Well, well, well
Look who's showin' up right now
You're so predictable
Thought you had it all worked out

Let me guess, you miss me, you're sorry
Heard that I was here with somebody
Too bad, it's too little, too late
Don't make me say, don't make me say

I told you so, I told you so
I told you so, I told you
I let you know, if you let go
Find someone else to hold you
Just walk away, don't make me say
The only words I owe you
I told you so, I told you so
I told you so, I told you

Bittersweet
I don't wanna be right this time
But you made a fool of me
And you're not gonna fool me twice, it's almost like I

I told you so, I told you so
I told you so, I told you
I let you know, if you let go
Find someone else to hold you
Just walk away, don't make me say
The only words I owe you
I told you so, I told you so
I told you so, I told you

I told you so, I told you so
I told you so, I told you
I let you know, if you let go
Find someone else to hold you
Just walk away, don't make me say
The only words I owe you
I told you so, I told you so
I told you so, I told you

Just walk away, don't make me say
The only words I owe you
I told you so, I told you so
I told you so, I told you
