

Dare

The Band of Heathens

I dare you to tell me something good
Not because it's bad or you think you should
I dare, not to scare

Isolation, the bubble I'm inside
Deprivation, my senses have been tied
I cannot find an escape
I've taken all I can take

I dare you to tell me something good
Not because it's bad or think you should
I dare, not to scare
Tell me something good

Plastic portraits, of places I have seen
Replications, of people I have been
An original impression
A midnight confession

I dare you to tell me something good
Not because it's bad or you think you should
I dare, not to scare
Tell me something good

I dare you to tell me something good
Not because it's bad or you think you should
I dare, not to scare
Yeah I dare you, I really really dare
Tell me something, tell me something
Tell me something good
