

Gonna Be Ok

The Band Perry

Hey yesterday is the day you died, could it be you just stopped feeling alive?
Trouble's on your shoulders for so long, you'll be stronger whe n the moment's gone
You're looking for a better day, the darkest hour finds the bri ghtest grace
So today, I know you'll come to realize Come to realize that

Hey, everything is gonna be okay, may God kiss your weary face
Everything is gonna be alright, let peace be yours tonight
Rest and know you're saved, don't be afraid, oh
Everything is gonna be okay
Be okay

I see the storm clouds in your eyes, don't be afraid to taste t he tears you cry
Ring the good out of the bad, there's an awful lot of beauty in that You're looking for a hand to hold, you gotta stumble to stand u p on your own, oh
My fingertips within your grip
Reach a little further then,

Hey, everything is gonna be okay, may God kiss your weary face.
Everything is gonna be alright, let peace be yours tonight.
Rest, and know you're saved, don't be afraid, oh
Everything is gonna be okay.

Mercy speaks in disguise,
A voice too rough to recognize,
Brings you back to life and

Hey, everything is gonna be okay, may God kiss your weary face
Everything is gonna be alright, let peace be yours tonight
Rest, and know you're saved, don't be afraid, oh
Everything is gonna be okay

Be okay

(Everything) is gonna be okay
I said reach a little further, reach a little further and say
(Everything) is gonna be okay
So come on back to life, it's gonna be alright

It's gonna be okay, it's gonna be okay, it's gonna be okay
You'll see a brighter day, it's gonna be okay
It's gonna be okay, it's gonna be okay,

You'll see a brighter day, yeah
