The Baseballs

Half awake on a kitchen floor
Not seeing straight, this ain't my place
Open up the bathroon door
I see something ain't right
What happened last night?

O-o-o-oh Something ain't right
What happened last night?
O-o-o-oh Something ain't right
I'm struck by the daylight

No, no, no - It started with a sixpack
Now I got flashback
Stole the show
I didn't see the red flag
Someone help me recap

Flashback, flashback
Just got a flashback, flashback
No, no, no - Flashback, flashback

Can't get my memory clear
I'm feeling sick, and who is this chick
Sleeping in a puddle of beer
These nights have to end
Never again

O-o-o-oh - Never again
No never again
O-o-o-oh - I guess, once again
My head's in a spin

No, no, no - It started with a sixpack
Now I got flashback
Stole the show
I didn't see the red flag
Someone help me recap

Flashback, flashback
Just got a flashback, flashback
No, no, no - Flashback, flashback
