The Baseballs

This box contains some rhythm
Baby, are you listening
Pull this ribbon
Let me give you a hand

Rip this fancy paper
Somethin's waiting for ya
A custom made production
Baby, here I am

Girl, how you use me
It's making me woozy
Hold on just a minute while you can

Uh... Don't push another button
Uh... Don't flip another switch
Uh... A system malfunction
Uh... Gal, you're crackin' me like this

I'll be your fruit machine
But baby, don't be mean
Push the button carefully

Play me like a Walkman
I'm not made for talking
There's some hidden functions just for you to get stoked

Always at your service
Girl, you make me nervous
You are so ambitious, I'm on overload

Girl, how you use me
It's making me woozy
Hold on just a minute while you can

Uh... Don't push another button
Uh... Don't flip another switch
Uh... A system malfunction
Uh... Gal, you're crackin' me like this

I'll be your fruit machine
But baby, don't be mean

(Solo)

I'll be your fruit machine
But baby, don't be mean

Push the button carefully
Push the button just for me
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Push the button carefully
Push the button just for me
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh

Uh... Don't push another button
Uh... Don't flip another switch

Uh... Don't push another button
Uh... Don't flip another switch

Uh... Don't push another button
Uh... Don't flip another switch
