

Gone... Gone... Gone.

The Basics

(Gone, gone, gone)
Now that you're gone
No I can't go on
I once loved you like I should
But that was then, and now I've changed
And it may be too late now that you're gone
(Gone, gone, gone)
Now that you're gone
No, I can't go on
God, it hurts to think I've lied
About what happened on that night
And of a part of me forever gone
(Gone, gone, gone)
Now that you're gone
No, I can't go on
I broke the rules
I can't believe I'm such a fool
Short term pleasure for long term pain
Only now I see
Much too late for me
(Gone, gone, gone)
Now that you're gone
No, I can't go on
I once loved you like I should
But that was then, and now I've changed
And it may be too late now that you're gone
