

I Want You Back Again

The Bates

Leaves are falling to the ground
Now it's cold but I'm running around
I don't find a sleep at night
I want you back again

You are ready to man's gone
You disappeared in a thunder storm
Please don't mind, give me your sign
I want you back again

Girl, I miss you
I miss you so much
Now I'm on the streets at night
And you're always on my mind

I will look for you
Everywhere
I won't stop - that i wanna swear
Till I find your angel eyes
I want you back again

Leaves are falling to the ground
Now it's cold but I'm running around
I don't find a sleep at night
I want you back again

I want you back again
I want you back again
I just want you back again
Yeeeeeah...
