

Sometimes

The Bates

Sometimes
everything is hazy
Everybody's crazy
Oh no
Then I think it's time to go

Sometimes
everything is burning
It starts without a warning
Oh yeah
Then I think I'll stay and watch the sun go down

There were times when I thought everything is right
Now I'm standing here
But I don't stand well tonight
To many questions
My head is upside down
To many reasons
To many people around

Sometimes
everything is hazy
Everybody's crazy
Oh no
Then I think it's time to go

Sometimes
everything is burning
It starts without a warning
Oh yeah
Then I think I'll stay and watch the sun go down

The girls are lookin' strange when I'm passing by
So they want to beat me
But they're much to high

To many pictures
To many broken glass on the ground
To many viewing
My head is upside down

Sometimes
everything is hazy
Everybody's crazy
Oh no
Then I think it's time to go

Sometimes
everything is burning
It starts without a warning
Oh yeah
Then I think I'll stay and watch the sun go down

Watch the sun go down (3x)
