

Kismet

The Beaches

Two, three

We were written in the stars, pulled a lover's tarot card
Was decided by the Gods, throwing out their lightning rods
Wow, we're in the same city
We're both relatively pretty
We're both single, under fifty
Must be kismet
So kiss me, woo
Muah
Two, three

Let's unravel all the thread, let's see how it's gonna end
All the pieces seem to fit
It's beautiful, it's bliss
We like music, we like movies
We like dancing, we like whiskey
We're so similar, it's freaky
Must be kismet
So kiss me, woo
Muah
Two, three

Ooh
I keep on running into you
I live on your street, but
What are the chances, the chances
I keep running into you?
Ooh, ooh
It's like I'm meant to be with you
It's kismet, baby, yeah
Something so drastic, it's magic
Like I'm supposed to be with you

It's all in the cosmic plan
Holding hands, it's out of our hands
Throw the dice, see where it lands
Let's just roll with it, roll with it, man
Oh my god, it's meant to be
And you just ran right into me?
No Bumble, just organically
What is this, 1993?

Must be kismet
So kiss me, woo
Muah

Ooh
I keep on running into you
I live on your street, but
What are the chances, the chances
I keep running into you?
Ooh
It's like I'm meant to be with you

It's serendipity, it's special, baby
It's a miracle, it's magic, baby

Ooh

I keep on running into you
I keep running into you?
Ooh
It's like I'm meant to be with you
Like I'm supposed to be with you
