

You Don't Owe Me Anything

The Beaches

All I ever do is misbehave
Wake-up with strangers I met yesterday
I think of all my indiscretions and how I never learn my lesson
But I love being free and that's ok

You don't owe, you don't owe me anything
You don't owe, you don't owe me anything
So please, don't try and waste your time I will only love you f or the night
You don't owe, you don't owe me anything

I know that you think I'm gonna change
That the good guy will win out one of these days
That all my strange sexual tendencies will be cast aside eventu ally
That I'll get tired of giving myself away

You don't owe, you don't owe me anything
You don't owe, you don't owe me anything
So please, don't try and waste your time I will only love you f
or the night
You don't owe, you don't owe me anything
So please, don't try and waste your time I will only love you f
or the night
You don't owe, you don't owe me anything
