

Electric Chair

The Bear Quartet

Pass me that bowl of soap
Hands are dirty
Did a crap thing
Read your letters
Got inside while you where out
Searched your drawers,
Opened closets
Looked for skeletons

It's not much but it's a home
Some privacy
Some place to be alone
It's not much but it's your home
I violated
Something holy

Pass me that bowl of soap
Toothpaste won't do
Mouth's too dirty
Toads jump out
I did some evil things
I told some lies about the findings
In your house

No, there's no electric chair
So if you find one put me there

It's not much but it's a home
Some privacy
Some place to be alone
It's not much but it's your home
I violated
Something holy
