

Great Thing

The Bear Quartet

She wears a wet skirt
Her head is shaking
Towards my downy chin
It doesn't move me at all

A great thing passes by Another leaves my mind

She wears a true story
That's what she claims
How she was out for pleasure
But found enemies before her
Cross my heart
I'm afraid now
