

I Don't Wanna

The Bear Quartet

I have changed my mind I don't Want to go there so if you could Take me for a ride I promise that
I'll make it up to you someday

I don't want to face the consequences
Of what I've done
I just want to lie here
In the womb of your car

The same places different times
You've got your story, I've got mine
Enough has been done
Enough has been erased
For life to collapse in on itself

I don't want to face the consequences
Of what I've done
This is where there's no place left to go
So please don't stop

The buildings that we pass they hold
Homes that once held me
I just want to lay ere
In the womb of your car

Take me through this darkness and the next
It's a beautiful stretch
You've got your story, I've got mine
Or do I do I

I know that I have to change my life
I've always known
I just want to lay here

It'll be all right, just drive
