

I Know My Owner

The Bear Quartet

I won't be there when you come home
I'm switching off what you switched on
I feel so alive that I want to die
You won't be there I want to die
You won't be there when I go out
I feel so free
Because I know I'm not
Everybody knows where I have been
I wrapped my arms around a bad dream
Say hello, wave goodgye
Socially dead, otherwise fine
I feel so free
With nowhere to go
Always a first
Would be the last words
