

The Reason Is

The Beautiful Girls

How long will this go on, this pain and emptiness?
I only wan't to see you smiling, i want to be free from all of this.
Another moment on from the freedom i dreamt so long about for y ou and i

And i don't know why the reason is that we are both here.

Impending liberation for all but me, the space of emptiness.
I'd waver a million times, be too under to see your preciousnes s.
And our love will live on even when we die, i've dreamt so long about a place for you and i to live,
to live and remember, this life.

And i don't know why the reason is that we are both here.

Well sure now at least shall find it.
Now i know the way i wan't to give it to you.
And where-ever i go i wan't to take you there.
At least we shall live.

And i don't know why the reason is that we are both here.
And time it passes by but we are not to fear.
