

No More Excuses

The Bees

Every now and then when you find a friend Who can tell your life to you become a combination of one Patience is a double edged sword
There's no regret in the power of now, originally it seemed so impossible

Oh yes, you've said them all there's no more excuses to use
So why would you tell them for, are you feeling the blues or un sure?

Make your own wisdom with the look in your eye
Our land is a kingdom with a sea and a sky in harmony so endless sly pure
Nature is a wonderful thing incredibly all the voices sing
It's the stamina that captures the soul

Oh yes, you've said them all there's no more excuses to use
sure?
