

We'll Go Walking

The Bees

Let's take a stroll, just you and I
Now as the twilight fills the sky
Early evening in the rain
Hand in hand and down the lane

We'll go walking (3x)
With really no place to go

Now as the summer starts to fade
Into the gold of autumn shade
'Neath an armor of love with you
There's nothing I would rather do

Than go walking
We'll go walking
We'll go walking
With really no place to go

You've got an open coat so vile
We've got hurts(?) too
Even though there are rainclouds in the sky
It's just perfect for me and you

Walking
We'll go walking
We'll go walking

We'll go walking
With really no place
To go
