

More Of You

The Belonging Co

We wait here in the silence, when there's nothing left to say
Where the promise of a breakthrough is just a breath away
We lean into Your presence, as Your glory fills this place
And the power of Your Spirit leaves nothing here unchanged

We want more, we want more, more of You
And we won't move, we won't move, until You do

There's no limit, there's no ceiling to all that You can do
The possibilities are endless, when our God is in the room
Where You are there is freedom, where You are there is life
Where's there's hunger and surrender, You'll be there every time

We want more, we want more, more of You
And we won't move, we won't move, until You do
We want more, we want more, more of You
And we won't move, we won't move, until You do

We want more, we want more, more of You
We want more, we want more, more of You

Fresh fire, fresh wind
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again
Revival within
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again

Fresh fire, fresh wind
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again
Revival within
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again

Fresh fire, fresh wind
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again
Revival within
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again

'Cause we want more, we want more, more of You
And we won't move, we won't move, until You do
Yes we want more, we want more, more of You
And we won't move, we won't move, until You do

Just we want more, we want more, more of You
We want more, we want more, more of You
We want more, we want more, more of You
Yes we want more, we want more, more of You

Fresh fire, fresh wind
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again
Revival within
Come and do something new in us again

Do something new again

Fresh fire, fresh wind
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again
Revival within
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again

Fresh fire, fresh wind
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again
Revival within
Come and do something new in us again
Do something new again

'Cause we want more, we want more, more of You
And we won't move, we won't move, until You do
Yes we want more, we want more, more of You
And we won't move, we won't move, until You do

'Cause we want more, we want more, more of You
Yes we want more, we want more, more of You
We want more, we want more, more of You
We want more, we want more, more of You
