

No Strings

The Belonging Co

You've already done enough
Gave Your life to show me love
You've already done enough
Only love would choose a grave
Pay what I could not repay
Jesus what else can I say

All I know is
You're my everything
I will live for You and no one else
No catch
No strings
All I am I bring
I will live for You and no one else

You've already done it all
Healed my heart and saved my soul
You've already done it all
So from my next breath to my last
Nothing less than all I have
I surrender all I am

All I know is
You're my everything
I will live for You and no one else
No catch
No strings
All I am I bring
I will live for You and no one else

All I know is
You're my everything
I will live for You and no one else
No catch
No strings
All I am I bring
I will live for You and no one else

When I say I love You
I wanna say it with my life
My heart will choose You every time

When I say I love You
I wanna say it with my life
My heart will choose You every time

All I know is
You're my everything
I will live for You and no one else
No catch
No strings
All I am I bring
I will live for You and no one else

When I say I love You
My heart will choose You every time

When I say I love You
My heart will choose You every time

All I know is
You're my everything
I will live for You and no one else
No catch
All I am I bring
I will live for You and no one else

For You and no one else
Take the highest place
My one true love
No one else will do

No one else will do
No one else but you
No one else will do
No one else but you
No one else will do but you, Jesus
No one else will do but you, God

No one else will do but you
No one else will do but you for me
No one else will do but you, my great Lord
No one else will do but you

All I know is
You're my everything
I will live for You and no one else
No catch
No strings
All I am I bring
I will live for You and no one else

It's you
It's always been
And it always will be
No hesitation
It always will be you, Jesus
