

Draw Water

The Benjamin Gate

lightning up into the sky - I go seeing beyond this world - you show can I be this honest God - don't know this is me, I'm opened up and up and up drifting up into the light - you show moving to a new place - we go now have I been so blind - I know this is us, we're rising up and up and up and the mouth opens and closes to draw water

and I'm yearning for your ways and my eye draws light
with which to see
and I'm yearning for your ways

falling down before your feet - I go praying for the saving grace - you show covered in the blood you bleed - I know this is us, we're opened up and up and up

and the mouth opens and closes
to draw water
and I'm yearning for your ways
and my eye draws light
with which to see
and I'm yearning for your ways