Burn the Evil

The Berzerker

Embers burn and light the way to take the steps of those before you
Fearing life and taking what was never yours is far from graceful
Now you'll suffer, I'll burn all the memories that you've held on to Wanting, waiting, wasting all your life with such anticipation

Blowing out the flames of life it's time
Burning all your flesh I watch the flames turn white
Didn't even ever think to ask you why
Will this stop the lies?

Thinking that your life had meaning
That it was someting great
Why don't I choose to believe
You will never convince me

Burn the hatred
Burn the evil
Burn the bitch
It's almost done
Burn the lies
Burn the deception
Burn it all
I'm far from done

Always wanting never learning and you never made the time
Till your life's sudden ending came and now you live to die

Trapped in what you thought "it could never ever be worse"
Than the life full of misery that you had upon this earth

Searching for the ultimate escape you think you've found
Now you're just a rotting corpse as you lie there in the ground

This is all is and now you've only had to die
This all there is and now there's nothing

You're... The only one
You... The only one

When you're safe we'll hunt you down, Ruin you
All the things that I've never wanted or had to

Burn the hatred
Burn the evil
Burn the bitch
It's almost done
Burn the lies
Burn the deception
Burn it all
I'm far from done

Learning nothing, doing nothing
Feeling nothing, what's the point?
All this time that I've stood by you
You're a shell all dead inside

This is all you'll get from me

This is all I have for you
Why must I continue to...
You are now NOTHING

Burn the hatred
Burn the evil
Burn the bitch
It's almost done
Burn the lies
Burn the deception
Burn it all
I'm far from done

Always wanting never learning you never made the time
Till your life's sudden ending came and now you live to die

Trapped in what you thought "it could never ever be worse"
Than the life full of misery that you had upon this earth

Searcing for the ultimate escape you think you've found
Now you're just a rotting corpse as you lie there in the ground

This is all is and now you've only had die
This is all there is and now there's nothing

Burn the hatred
Burn the evil
Burn the bitch
It's almost done
Burn the lies
Burn the deception
Burn it all
I'm far from done

Burn the hatred
Burn the evil
Burn the bitch
It's almost done
Burn the lies
Burn the deception
Burn it all
I'm far from done

Will this stop the lies?
