

Wisdom and Corruption

The Berzerker

Burn this place
Life has gone
Resurrect

Those that wait
Without you
Forsaken

Open up your mind and look beyond
The things you think you know
Corruption steams from the true evil
Of our world and existence

A wrecking ball; s a started
Dragging your remains uphill
Wisdom is corruption
Don't impress upon me simple views

To prey on the simple minded
Is the height of weakness and immortality?
Follow blindly
With open eyes
The spirit world is lost upon you

Open up your mind and look beyond
The things you think you know
Corruption steams from the true evil
Of our world and existence

A wrecking ball; s a started
Dragging your remains uphill
Wisdom is corruption
Don't impress upon me simple views

Religion
Brainwash me if you dare
Has it's own special place in hell
Religion

Erecting statues and reminders of a god long gone
Hoping, praying for an easier life
Than the ones before you
Taking chances with your health
For an enlightened mind
I can't just sit by ignore
What I see is going on

To prey on the simple minded
Is the height of weakness and immortality?
Follow blindly
With open eyes
The spirit world is lost upon you

Burn this place
Life has gone
Resurrect

Those that wait
Without you
Forsaken
