2am

The Beths

Do you feel it?
Feel it like you did back then?
2am
We were pounding the pavement
And I wonder
Could we be that way again
Still awake
Talking late in the kitchen

There's a song that never fails to make you cry
So we stared straight ahead for the whole time
And the future never seemed to be as bright
As it was in the glow of your headlight

Do you feel it?
Feel it like you did back then?
On the wharf
I was caught in a tailspin
Like a lifeguard reaching in to pull me out
When you spoke I was safe in the sound

I've been having dreams
Where you're next to me
You don't try to leave
You just keep me company

Did you feel the ground beneath us start to move?
There was news I was nervous to tell you
Through the filter softening the words we said
Were you mad?
Tell the truth
I can take it

I could hear the engine as you drove away
Through the blinds
Saw the glow of the light fade
Through the darkness pushing in on every side
Still awake playing chase with the sunrise

Do you feel it?
Feel it like you did back then?
We were young
We were cruel and mistaken
And I know it more with every passing day
Though it hurts
I still love you the same

Do you feel it?
Feel it like you did back then?
2am
We were pounding the pavement
Do you feel it?
Feel it like you did back then?
2am
We were pounding the pavement
