

Take

The Bets

Pulled out of eden
Into the cold night
I heard you breathing, breathing
Heavenly treason
Bitter erasure
Then annihilation
Elation, elation

Oh, stalling of the engine at your heart
Do it to keep the hardware turning
Burn the fuel to light the spark
Oh, take and take and take
Take until the palliative is gone
Take it to fill yourself
The confidence to speed into the fog

Oblivion
Oblivion
Oh, oblivion
Oblivion, oblivian
Oblivion
Oblivion
Oh, oblivion
Oblivion, oblivian

Out with a bang now
Toeing the bright line
Gimme the black out, the black out
Tell me a secret
So I can erase it
I won't need to keep it
Keep it, keep it

Oh, thawing at the pyre of your fear
Did you forget about the person that you were, when you were there?
Oh, take and take and take
Take until the photograph is gone
Take it to overwhelm the echoes bouncing on and on and on
Oh

Take
Take
Take
Take
Take
Take
Take
Take
Take
Oblivion
Oblivion
Oh, oblivion
Oblivion, oblivian

Tell me a secret
So I can erase it
I won't need to keep it
Keep it

Oh, stalling of the engine at your heart
Do it to keep the hardware turning
Burn the fuel to light the spark
Take until the palliative is gone
Take it to fill yourself
The confidence to speed into the fog
Oh, thawing at the pyre of your fear
Did you forget about the person that you were, when you were there?
Take until the photograph is gone
Take it to overwhelm the echoes bouncing on and on and on
Oh, on and on and on
Oh, on and on and on
