

So Crazy

The Bigger Lights

I woke up at two
With nothing to do
But stare at the ceiling in my room
There's places I'll go
When I'm stuck here lyin' on the floor

I used to be me
I used to be something worth believing in until
I traded in my pills in booze
And caught the traveler's blues

I know I'm the only one to blame
For all of my self-inflicted pain
But when I'm alone at night
I crush my maker's day

But lately I am so
Crazy, I don't know
How I got myself this way
Don't wanna be
Broken and alone
Again, on my own
I hate me lately
Think I may be goin' crazy, baby

I'm stuck in a rut
I'm wondering what
It's gonna take to pick me up
To put a new step in my shoes
And get me on my way

I watch the TV
It puts me to sleep
I run from the dreams between my sheets
Where all of the friends that I lost
Are waiting for me

I know I'm a total tragedy
A shell of a boy without the teeth
To look in the mirror and say
"A man don't live this way"

C'mon!

But lately I am so
Crazy, I don't know
How I got myself this way
Don't wanna be
Broken and alone
Again, on my own
I hate me lately
Think I may be goin' crazy, baby

But lately I am so
Crazy, I don't know
How I got myself this way
Don't wanna be

Broken and alone
Again, on my own
I hate me lately
Think I may be goin' crazy, baby

Cuz I may be goin' crazy, baby

I may be goin' crazy, baby

Now I know I'm goin' crazy, baby

Now you've got me goin' crazy, baby

One more time, Big Daddy!
