

I'm A Broken Heart

The Bird and the Bee

Cry as much as I want to
Weep, I know I cant have you
I wipe my tears away, away

Wish, wish for the summer
Want, to pull over under
I wipe my tears away, away

I try, I try, I try
I try, I try, I try
I try to make the best at happiness

Im a broken heart
Im a broken heart
Im a broken heart
My love is bleeding

Im a broken heart
Im a broken heart
Im a broken heart
An empty feeling

I try, I try, I try
I try, I try, I try
I try to make do with much more of less

All, all of our moments
Have just become ailments
Im haunted all of every day

Ache, aching and teething
My big love is bleeding
I think I might be dying

I try I try I try
I try, I try, I try

I try to make the best at happiness

Im a broken heart
Im a broken heart
Im a broken heart
My love is bleeding

Im a broken heart
Im a broken heart
Im a broken heart
An empty feeling
