

Sleep Tonight

The Birthday Massacre

When the night falls
Shivering stars shine like eyes
When the moon is changing faces
Covering up its smile

Don't look, you'll see it
Run, hide, it's all around
Don't look, you feel it
Run, hide, don't make a sound

Sleep tonight
Never alone here when you close your eyes
Sleep tonight
Dreaming of ghosts who followed you home

Cold in silence
Here in your room where you lie
And the walls are telling secrets
Eating you up inside

Don't look, you'll see it
Run, hide, it's all around
Don't look, you feel it
Run, hide, don't make a sound

Sleep tonight
Never alone here when you close your eyes
Sleep tonight
Dreaming of ghosts who followed you home

Sleep tonight
Never alone here when you close your eyes
Sleep tonight
Dreaming of ghosts who followed you home
