

Dive Position

The Birthday Party

She does a rain dance in my room
And then assumes a dive position
Had a vision, it's looking grim
All damp with grief in her water-wings
I sigh to you
Touch me, touch me, touch me, touch me

Hear the taps fill the bath
It's almost dark in a dive position
My disposition, I shouldn't have fought at all
Draped in shame, she runs the gauntlet
I sigh to you
Touch me, touch me, touch me, touch me

Oh, let's all start again
We can still be friends
We can just stop
And I sigh
touch me, touch me, touch me, touch me

She does a rain dance in my room
And then assumes a dive position
Had a vision, it's looking grim
All draped in pain, ah, such a big splash
I sigh to you
Touch me, touch me, touch me, touch me
