Run Wild

The Black Box Revelation

no more fire
the river cries
tears take off
and fill the sky
a silver screen raised
to picture the night
seventeen horses were sacrificed

run wild
shatter what you see
run wild
live it like a dream

no peace no sword suffering. you drown in those tears, tears fall down like knives the silver screen still raised to picture the light

run wild
run wild
live it like a dream
